Web Summit 2024 attendees will be the first to explore how Benefitit and Native Teams' joint solution simplifies benefits management for global teams. With personalized benefits tailored to individual employee needs, companies can elevate employee engagement no matter where they are located.

In addition, attendees will receive a special discount on the Benefitit app, giving them an exclusive opportunity to implement these innovative solutions at a reduced rate.

The Vision of the Partnership

Benefitit's founder, Vladimir Jelić, emphasizes that this partnership was born out of a shared mission to create modern, global work environments. "Both Benefitit and Native Teams are focused on simplifying and enhancing employee-related processes. We aim to equip organizations with tools to attract and retain the best talent while improving company culture and team satisfaction,” Jelić said.

Native Teams, known for its ability to streamline global hiring, payroll, and benefits administration, is a perfect partner for Benefitit, which offers highly customizable employee rewards programs. This partnership empowers companies to automate administrative tasks while focusing on their strategic goals.

Key Benefits for Companies and Employees

As flexible work has become the norm, especially in tech, tailored benefits and easy administration are critical. Benefitit and Native Teams provide several advantages for companies looking to manage global teams:

- Global Reach: Offer personalized benefits to employees regardless of location.
- Easy Integration: Both solutions seamlessly integrate into existing company systems.
- Enhanced Employee Satisfaction: Custom benefits programs boost engagement and productivity.
- Legal Compliance: Native Teams ensure compliance with local regulations across over 50 countries.

Web Summit 2024: A Major Milestone

Web Summit 2024 is the ideal platform to showcase this exciting partnership. As one of the world’s most influential tech conferences, the event allows Benefitit and Native Teams to introduce their joint solution to a global audience, highlighting how companies can benefit from this innovation in workforce management.

“Web Summit is the perfect place to demonstrate the future we’re building together,” Jelić added. “This is just the beginning of our journey to revolutionize how companies manage and support their employees worldwide.”
